<td>&quot;Whenever you can, take material from the original source, not a secondhand one. Sometimes, however, only an indirect source is available - for example, an author’s published account of someone’s spoken remarks. If what you quote or paraphrase is itself a quotation, put the abbreviation qtd. in (&quot;quoted in&quot;) before the indirect source you cite in your parenthetical reference. (You may wish to clarify the relation between the original and secondhand sources in a note.)&quot; (MLA Handbook, 8th ed. p. 124)</td>
