

Douglas College Community Guidelines for Events

- We encourage caring and respectful dialogue and discussion and language that supports creating a welcoming, diverse and inclusive environment for all event participants
- We ask that participants kindly respect the privacy of other attendees by not disclosing any personal information about our attendees outside of the session.
- We will not tolerate any discriminatory, hurtful, or derogatory language nor any bullying or harassment at our events. Such behaviours will result in removal from the event.